

OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE SOLUTIONS

Operational excellence will strategically position your operation to deliver unmatched value to your customers and bottom line through organizational agility and asset optimization. Operational excellence is a strategy, science, and a mindset that will drive increased productivity, efficiency, and long-term sustainable growth.

Operational excellence is based on methodologies such as six sigma, lean management, employee engagement, OEE measurables, and kaizen though it goes beyond their individual philosophies. It is the foundation to competitive advantage and market leadership. Altix can help guide you and your company on your operational excellence journey through:

- Organization assessments
- Gap analysis
- Value stream mapping
- Design of future holistic architecture
- Identification of low hanging fruits for quick wins
- OEE Measurables
- Organization coaching and training
- Work systems implementation
- Implementation support/project management
